Scoring

Students are scored in a blind audition process. Adjudicators are randomly assigned entry numbers and are not able to see school, teacher, or student names. Each audition is scored by multiple judges and scores are averaged together.

Adjudicators use this following rubric to give a maximum score of 50.

Category Name	Low Value	High Value
Tone Quality	1	10
Pitch Accuracy/Intonation	1	10
Rhythmic Accuracy	1	10
Diction	1	10
Musicality/Interpretation	1	10
	5	50

Roughly 160–180 of the highest scores (including ties) are selected for the choir.

Next Steps!

- All announcements and information will be sent via email. PLEASE be sure to add ncelemhonorschorus@gmail.com to your contacts list so you don't miss any vital information!
- Teachers will receive an email announcing the selected students! Be sure to celebrate this accomplishment with students as well as your administration!
- Music packets from JW Pepper can be purchased any time! You will be responsible for purchasing your own, pre-assembled packets
- Book a hotel room! The Marriott and Embassy Suites hotels offer a NCMEA discount on rooms. These rooms are available on a first come, first served basis and they go QUICKLY!
- Teachers will need to mail a school check to Tonya Allison for $40 per selected student. Teachers may purchase a t-shirt in addition to that if they would like.
- Deadlines, procedures, repertoire, rehearsal tracks, fees, and conference information will all be on the NCMEA website and in emails.

Next Steps!

- You will be responsible for ordering music packets from JWPepper. The packets are pre-assembled and can be purchased at any time. Each student will need their own folders of original music for rehearsals.
- Parts will be assigned by school and will be sent in a director's email ASAP.
- Rehearsal tracks by part will be made available on the NCMEA website. In addition to the website it is expected that the teacher spend adequate time with selected students to ensure their knowledge and comfortability with the music.
- Students should go into Honors Chorus weekend ready to perform the music from memory.
