

UNC GREENSBORO

College of Visual and Performing Arts

Recording Technician and Hall Manager
School of Music

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro School of Music seeks an outstanding Recording Technician and Hall Manager. The Recording Technician serves as the Audio Engineer & Livestreaming Technician and Performance Hall Manager for the School of Music. This position is a key member of our technical staff and requires high level training in a specialized skill working with high-end recording and audio equipment.

Responsibilities Include:

- Serve as chief recording engineer and livestreaming technician for academic and outreach programs.
- Schedule and oversee all performance spaces for the School of Music
- Recruit, train, and supervise student recording and livestreaming crews for School of Music events both on and off campus.
- Maintain and procure audio recording and livestreaming resources for the School of Music performance spaces.
- Archive School of Music recordings.
- Collaborate on projects with faculty, students, and community partners

Minimum Qualifications

- Audio recording experience.
- A college degree in Music or related arts discipline.

Preferred Qualifications

- A degree in Audio Engineering or closely related field.
- Two or more years of professional audio/visual experience.
- Experience in concert music.
- Ability to function independently.

The application review begin date is November 2, 2026.

To apply for this position, please visit our website at: <https://spartantalent.uncg.edu/postings/36220>

UNC Greensboro is committed to equal opportunity in education and employment for all persons and will not tolerate any discrimination against or harassment of persons on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin (including language), political affiliation, genetic information, veteran status, disability, or age.